Happy New Year!

I hope your winter celebrations were fun and full of joy. The Belvoir Spouses' Club is delighted to ring in 2021 with lots of hope! We are excited to see what this year brings!

Keeping in line with health and safety recommendations, the BSC will host its first meeting this year as an online evening trivia night on January 12th. Please be sure to sign up using the link above. All of you who participated in the lunchtime trivia event will recall what a blast it was! We hope to see you all again for a fun time in a couple of weeks.

There are many ways to stay connected and involved while we remain connected from a distance. Check out the rest of the newsletter for more information. We still have a few openings on our Board, too! Please let me know if you would like more details about the roles.

As always, stay safe and stay in touch!

See you soon!

Kari Sturim

From the Parliamentarian:

T'was the month after Christmas, and all through the house,
nothing would fit me, not even a blouse;
The cookies I'd nibbled, the eggnog I had to taste,
at the holiday parties had gone to my waist;

When I got on the scales there arose such a number!
When I walked to the store (less a walk than a lumber),
I'd remember the marvelous meals I'd prepared,
The gravies and sauces and beef nicely rared;

The wine and the rum balls; the bread and the cheese,
and the way I'd never said, "No thank you, please."
As I dressed myself in my husband's old shirt,
and prepared once again to do battle with dirt,
I said to myself, as only I can,
"You can't spend a winter disguised as a man!"

So, away with the last of the sour cream dip.
Get rid of the fruit cake, every cracker and chip.
Every last bit of food that I like must be banished,
'til all the additional ounces have vanished.

I won't have a cookie--not even a lick.
I'll want only to chew on a long celery stick.
I won't have hot biscuits, or corn bread, or pie,
I'll munch on a carrot and quietly cry.

I'm hungry, I'm lonesome, and life is a bore,
But isn't that what January is for?
Unable to giggle, no longer a riot.
Happy New Year to all and to all a good diet!
